Besides the company letterhead, what is the format or specific information required on the separate company quotation document? 2. Are brochures required for all the listed items, or will a basic picture representation of the products suffice? 3. Can information on the number of deliveries be provided? If bid found successful, as this will allow us to factor in transportation cost. 	Feedback date: Tuesday, 19 November 2024 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. In addition for a quotation to being on a company letterhead, the quotation should provide detailed descriptions of the items, aligning with Section III: List of Goods and Price Schedule. This ensures clarity and ease of evaluation. 2. Brochures are preferred for all listed items as they provide comprehensive specifications and features. However, if brochures are unavailable, clear and detailed product pictures will be accepted. 3. The number of deliveries will be communicated to the awarded bidder. Deliveries will be scheduled on an ad hoc basis, depending on requirements. Feedback date: Tuesday, 19 November 2024

4. This RFQ is for 12 months. Some of the quantities are quite little. If a bidder is awarded a specific line item, does this mean that for 12 months only this bidder will be asked to supply that line item? We ask as we would like to plan ahead to keep stock on hand in case NIP runs out before the 12 months is done and will need to get more stock in.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Delivery to be on an ad hoc basis on request of stock delivery (once off delivery will not be accepted). • Price must be fixed for the duration of the contract (twelve (12) months). • After the initial delivery, future deliveries will be requested in batches the same quantities per respective line item on an ad hoc basis.
